Dear Friends,

All of us here at The Hole in the Wall Gang Camp truly appreciate the dedication of your time and good will to participate in the Big Game Battle. You are helping the children and families who need us the most by lending your proven leadership in the greater Boston community to raise awareness and funds for our mission.

In 2011, The Hole in the Wall Gang Camp will serve more than 17,500 children with diagnoses of cancer, sickle cell anemia, HIV/AIDS, hemophilia, metabolic disorders, and other life-threatening illnesses and conditions. More than 10,000 of these children come from Massachusetts. Your support of the Big Game Battle is making a lasting difference to thousands of seriously ill children locally. All of us at Camp feel privileged to bring healing, joy, and friendship to children and their families through our summer sessions, family weekends, and Hospital Outreach Program. All of our services are provided free of charge thanks to generous supporters like you.

In starting Camp our founder wanted to acknowledge luck - the random good luck in his life and the tragic bad luck in the lives of seriously ill children. He challenged us to always be mindful of how fortunate we are and to share those blessings with those less fortunate. That's exactly what you are doing for our Campers and we are all so deeply grateful.

Paul Newman once said, "I happen to think that in life we need to be a little like the farmer, who puts back into the soil what he takes out." Thank you for all you do to keep our founder's dream alive.

Sincerely,

James H. Canton
